

If the 3D coordinates of P are unknown and we measure only its projection in 2 images:

- Compute the essential matrix using 5 or more points
- Problem is of dimension 5: i.e. up to a global scale factor

This is the same as the (old) Hollywood effect

